COOLING CENTERS NOW OPEN THROUGH LABOR DAY IN BEVERLY HILLS

Flex Alert Issued Calling for Power Conservation

Beverly Hills, Calif. – As high temperatures blanket Southern California for the next several days, Beverly Hills Cooling Centers will be open through Labor Day, Monday, September 5, to provide relief from the extreme heat. The following locations will provide a cool, air-conditioned environment:

- Roxbury Park Community Center
 - Thursday/Friday: 8 am – 9:30 pm
 - Saturday/Sunday: 8 am – 5 pm
 - Monday: 11 am – 4 pm

- La Cienega Park Community Center
 - Thursday/Friday: 8 am – 9:30 pm
 - Saturday/Sunday: 8 am – 5 pm
 - Monday: CLOSED

- Beverly Hills Public Library
 - Thursday: 9:30 am – 9:30 pm
 - Friday/Saturday: 10 am – 6 pm
 - Sunday: 12 pm – 6 pm
 - Monday: CLOSED

In addition, the California Independent System Operator has issued a statewide Flex Alert for today from 4 - 9 pm. A Flex Alert is a call for voluntary electricity conservation due to increased demand on the state's electricity grid. With rising temperatures expected for several days, the Alerts are expected through the weekend. Workers in office environments are also encouraged to shut off any unnecessary appliances, computers, equipment and lights before leaving for the day.

Residents and visitors are urged to stay indoors when possible, use sunscreen protection and drink plenty of fluids to avoid dehydration. For more information, please visit beverlyhills.org/sunSAFE.
